

The fertile Riebeek Valley lies at the foot of the Kasteelberg Mountains, where early settlers have left a legacy of creativity and abundance. Today, visitors to the Valley may enjoy the scenic beauty, wines, table grapes, olives, the arts and engaging with the richly diverse and friendly local inhabitants.

Riebeek Valley forms part of the Swartland, which stretches across the West Coast, spanning the coast, across flowers and fynbos, wheat-, cattle-, canola-, wine- and olive country including Yzerfontein, Darling, Malmesbury, Moorreesburg, Koringberg and the Valley.

We wish you a pleasant stay or, if passing through, happy memories to guarantee a return visit!
